Dedication

The Torch staff is pleased to dedicate this year's Torch to a man who is admired by all here at Southeastern. His love and zeal for God is evident not only in the classroom but also in his everyday activities. He has taught us all to put a firm foundation of God's Word under our dreams and then they will become realities. It is with great love and admiration that we dedicate the 1986 Torch to Reverend David R. Bundrick.

Colossians 3:16, 17 (NAS)

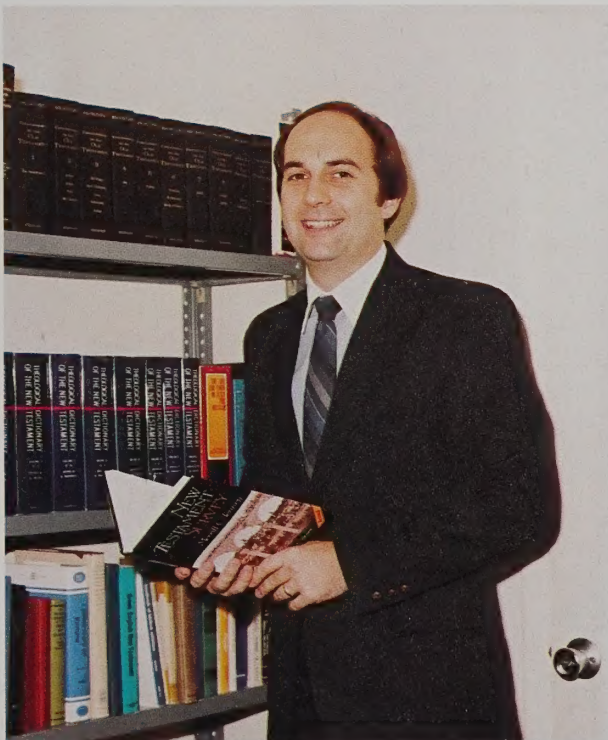

"Let the word of Christ richly dwell within you, with all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father."

David R. Bundrick

Bro. Bundrick is married and has two children. He is an assistant professor in the Bible department. We again honor and thank him for his service to Southeastern.

Building On A Dream

Jeri Cheatwood ministers through song in a chapel service.

President Hennesy captivates the attention of the students with one of his dynamic messages.

Missions Week gives students an opportunity to find out the spiritual needs of others around the world.

Spiritually

In 1977, Southwestern College held a special prayer service and women were told a vision of "prayer" women and women for the ministry of God. It was a time when the church was in a time of prayer and devotion.

One of the major themes of the Christian church is prayer. Prayer is a spiritual activity and a way of life. It is a way of life that is based on the love of God and the love of man. It is a way of life that is based on the love of God and the love of man.

The church is a place of prayer and devotion. It is a place where people can find peace and comfort. It is a place where people can find the love of God and the love of man.

Building On A Dream

The new building at the school was started by the spring board of trustees and the school board. It is now nearly finished and will be open to the public in the fall. It is a very fine building and will be a great help to the school.

What a fine school it is!

Academically

Everyone here at Southeastern has the common goal to pursue ourselves for the glory of God. Whether we dream of becoming a pastor, educator, or missionary we have many obstacles to overcome. It is in this time of studying that some of our dreams become realities. While some dream of making the Olympic Team, others dream of being a pastor. That separates our dreams, we know if we diligently try our hardest, and God will reward our efforts.

Building On A Dream

ADMINISTRATION, FACULTY, AND STAFF

Good Books are good for you, good for your community, and good for the world. Books are the best way to learn, to grow, and to connect with others. Books are the best way to live.

There is no reason to be afraid of books. Books are the best way to learn, to grow, and to connect with others. Books are the best way to live. Books are the best way to live.

Part of the original governing body from Southeastern College is shown in the above picture. The ladies were a constant and trustworthy presence of the original faculty who watched their sons and daughters grow up and become that make Southeastern College what it is today. The current faculty are grateful for their time and money to help us build upon our legacy. As classes are added to our curriculum, it is our hope to continue to fulfill our mission of making Southeastern an even greater institution for the future.

For the class of 86, graduation is merely one dream realized with many more waiting to be attained. We have laughed and cried together during the many changes over the past years. Most importantly however, we have grown closer together and closer to the One who called us and prepared us for the different roads ahead. Now that the end is finally here, we realize that the road was not nearly as long as we once believed. We realize also that this is not the end, but rather the beginning of a new road and upon leaving here we begin building new dreams.

Congratulations to our classmates of 1986.

The Juniors have returned for their third year at SEC, and it has been a very busy one at that. Classes are getting harder and the pressures of the future are building up. This class has had a very successful year.

They placed first in the traditional Alumni Challenge and have participated in various fundraisers, such as skating parties and the Hot Dog Stand to get ready for the best Junior-Senior Banquet ever. The best of everything to this class as you are knocking on the door of your Senior year.

Welcome Center

At the beginning of each school year, the SGA sponsors a welcome center to welcome new students and to welcome back returning students. This year's welcome center had something for everyone. Many area churches had booths for the students who are looking for "a church home away from home." The FLAME, the TORCH, ROTC, the Drama Club and many other clubs had booths set up to recruit new members. The welcome center was held in the cafeteria which was decorated like a Hawaiian paradise. The welcome center proved to be a help to all who visited it.

Girls' "Hay Day" 1985

On Saturday, October 26, the girls of Southeastern had a "hay day fer shore." This year's Sadie Hawkins was an all day event. It began at noon and lasted till around seven. There was a number of events that were available for everyone's enjoyment. These events included such things as a dunking booth, a volleyball game, a "mechanical" bull, a hay ride, and several skits. There was also lots of great eating and singing. Everyone that went seemed to have had a wonderful time.

1985 Christmas Party

This year the SGA decided to break tradition and make the 1985 Christmas "banquet" a "party." The party was held November 22 with the dress code being casual winter apparel. The party began with picture taking, eating, and playing games. Entertainment was provided by the group "Freedom." Brother Cadenhead provided the devotions and the party ended with a candle light worship service to praise God for sending us His Son. The party was not only a lot of fun but also truly inspirational.

Junior-Senior Banquet

Each year the Junior Class honors the Senior Class by hosting a banquet for the Seniors. The Juniors go all out to make this an extra special event. This past year the banquet was held on Friday, March 15 at the La Fantanas in Clearwater. Dinner started at 7:30 p.m. and the menu included chicken cordon bleu, green beans, dutchess potatoes, and chocolate mousse. Steve Archer was the guest entertainer.

Graduation 1985

The one thing we all dream about from our first day at Southeastern is graduation. This dream came true for the Class of 1985 on April 12, 1985 in the Lakeland Civic Center. The degrees were presented by President James L. Hennesy. Guest speakers for the commencement service were Clay Manos, Senior Class speaker, and Reverend Edward Blount, Superintendent of the South Carolina District.

Chapel

Spiritual guidance and leadership is essential to the growth of any Christian life. Southeastern students and faculty are given this guidance and leadership everyday in chapel services. Although at times it may feel like we are going out of necessity, each service is special and has something for everyone. Special emphasis services held during the year include Women's Week, Missions Week, and Spiritual Emphasis Week. This year we were also blessed to have a three day Founder's Week in conjunction with the college's fiftieth anniversary celebration.

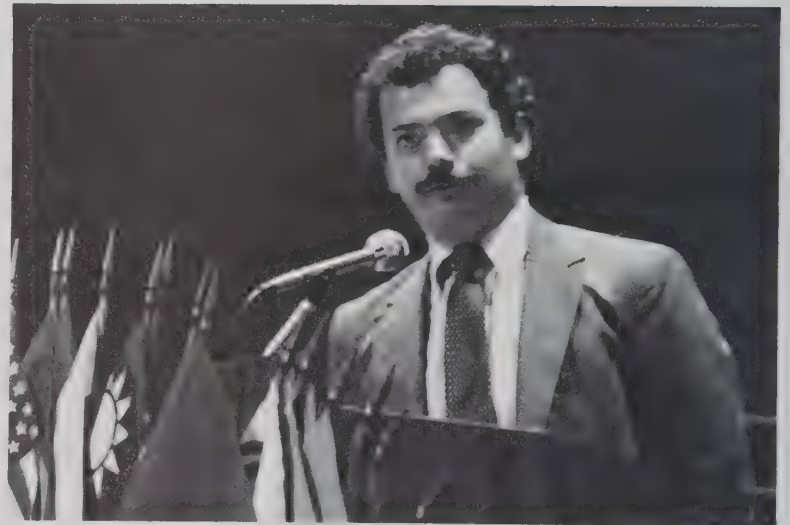

“Where Two Or More Are Gathered . . .”

Missions Week

"To Know Him . . . To Follow Him" was not only the SGA theme for this year, but it was also the theme for Missions Week. The speakers for this year's convention were Richard Neubauer, David Neighbors and Richard Buyers. Along with extended chapel services, there were a number of seminars held during the afternoon by different missionaries and teachers. Also, there was a "convention center" set up in the gym with booths set up containing information on the many areas of ministry available to Christians today.

ORGANIZATIONS

There is a large group of students sitting on the grass in an outdoor setting, possibly a school field or stadium. They are arranged in rows, facing towards the left side of the frame. In the background, a building and a vehicle are visible.

Student Government Association

To Know Him . . . To Follow Him

The 1985-86 Student Government Association chose as its theme "To Know Him . . . To Follow Him." Through the many activities and special services sponsored by the SGA it has tried to impart this idea into the heart and minds of the student body.

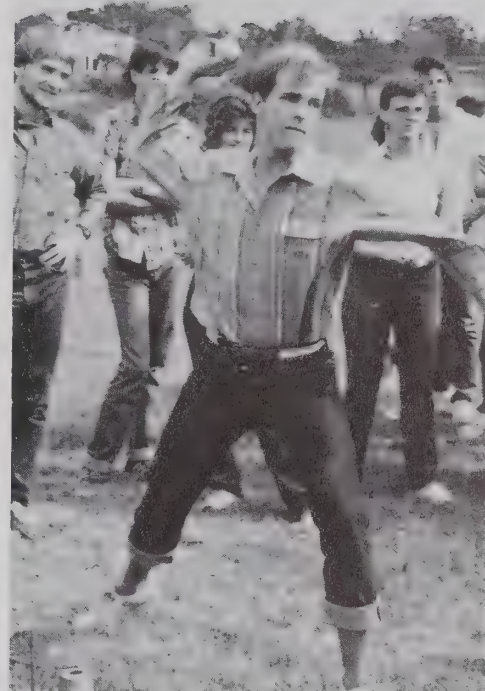

The SGA is responsible for various types of activities such as the Welcome Center and the Valentine Banquet. The SGA is also responsible for chapel services one day a week and also for Friday night chapel services.

Light House Productions

Shining Forth With Love

The Light House Production Company is a unique aspect of Southeastern's ministry department. Lighthouse Productions presents the message of Jesus through drama to a world that is craving for not only entertainment but also for some promise of a future.

The Production Company is divided into three smaller groups: the Resident Company, the Repertory Company, and SOS. SOS (Save Our Streets) is a new addition to the drama department. SOS is made up of students who go out into the streets of our cities to minister through skits and pantomime.

Light House Productions produces their own plays during the year and presents them in many churches throughout the area as well as in chapel services. The group offers a chance for development in the area of drama and also participation in an effective, practical ministry. As one can see by the pictures on these two pages, the group uses a variety of ways to witness for the Lord and to also have some fun.

MINISTRIES

All students in Southwestern, except seminarians, are required to take four semesters of student ministry. Each week, different groups are asked to fulfill this requirement. However, these groups are doing more than just fulfilling a requirement. They are ministering to each other and the live-in people on campus. If it takes some professors, staff, or businesspeople, and if some other people build upon their efforts.

Missions

Missions Board Officers: Bill Hancock, Jody Cox, Darian Holcombe, Paul Litten, Eileen Daley, Joni Doddmeade

"Then saith He unto His disciples, 'The Harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest, that He will send forth labourers into the harvest.'" (Matt. 9:37, 38) The fields are ripe and white unto harvest; it is now up to us to be the reapers. The world is our harvest field and whether our missions work is at home or abroad, we still have the responsibility to touch lives the the Gospel of Christ.

The Missions Board did their part to encourage people to become active in some kind of missions work this year. They handled such endeavors as the missions convention and sending representatives to the "GO" conference. They worked hard to make the dream of missions come true.

The World Christian Fellowship gathered every Tuesday to fellowship with one another and to pray for the needs of people everywhere. The prayer cells would pray for the missionary endeavours of their assigned countries.

The dream of missions is one that is steadily being built upon. God has appointed each of us to our respective place in the harvest field. It is now up to us to go into that place and carry the dream of missions.

Spanish Ministry

Spanish Club

With the burden of Florida's minority, Spanish outreach ministry has gone out into the streets to minister. Building their dream of hispanic evangelism, the group facilitates into two ministering bodies. The basic Spanish Club is for students on campus, primarily. Its purpose is to provoke interest and appreciation for hispanic culture and to encourage better assimilation into the culture for future ministry. The second facet of this ministry is ministry to the migrant workers. The students' dream is to be God's messengers reaching the many who are neglected. Together these two groups combine to create a great force to reach the Spanish people of our community.

Building On A Dream Building Up A Band

Long has it been the dream of Southeastern College to have an excellent instrumental program. This year the band program was a step closer to that dream. There were many changes along the way, primarily the introduction of the new director, Bro. Tindall. Dr. Tindall brought with him quality experience which enabled him to direct the concert band to new heights. The concert band provided excellent musical programs of various styles in chapels and night concerts which were enjoyed by both faculty and students alike.

Dr. Tindall also introduced to Southeastern College the pep band. The pep band played at basketball games to boost school spirit and to cheer the Crusaders on to victory.

Though the music got harder and the practices more fervent and demanding, Southeastern's instrumentalists were determined to do their best.

... And Classic Sounds

Southeastern College's music department presented a variety of different styles from contemporary to classical, and thus proved that God could be up-lifted in both styles. Each of the talented groups and chorale presented both styles for the glory of God.

Contemporary Christian was the style of music presented by the promotional groups "Rusty and Leisa" and "Calvin and Christie." Both of these young couples are a husband and wife team that would travel on weekends and minister in local churches. While both did promotional work for the school, ministering for the Lord was always the first priority as they touched many lives with the Gospel of Christ.

The Chorale presented a classical and Negro-spiritual style of music. Chorale was directed by Dr. Danny Tindall. Chorale members worked hard on their difficult music and presented excellent concerts in chapel. Chorale proved that even the oldest classical music could still effectively display the glory of God.

Both groups of singers gave of their time to do their best for Christ. Though the music at times got rough, they were determined to present only excellence in their performances; the mark of excellence that has been the dream of Southeastern.

Building On A Dream In Harmony

"Memorize!" "No Music!" "Watch the rhythm, please!" These words will echo in choir members' minds for a very long time. The road to seeing a dream accomplished must sometimes have curves and turns, and the biggest curve for choir this year was the introduction of Rev. Skip Redd as the new choir director.

Everyone was nervous on the first day of choir practice, but Brother Redd quickly assured them that he was just as nervous as they were. Though many choir members were unsure about the changes, Brother Redd quickly won the respect of the choir members. Brother Redd always encouraged choir to strive only for excellence in ministering for the Lord. His sharp directoral skills were augmented by the excellent piano skills of Dr. Linda Ligate who faithfully attended choir practices and was always ready to help.

Choir started off the year with a performance at Cypress Cathedral. Through their other performances their excellence was noted and appreciated by vast audiences.

There were many changes involved this year, but choir maintained their composure and had another successful year of ministry. Most importantly, their hearts were open to God and they were willing to be in one accord with Brother Redd and Dr. Ligate to allow God to bless and touch lives through them.

Building On A Dream Through Praises . . .

Praise 1985: Chelly Burges, Terrie Larkin, Vicki White: sopranos; Janice Hubbard, Christie Kona, Kim Sumner: altos; David Elliot, Danny Tayman: tenors; Steve Odum, Shawn Sweeney: basses; Keith Frix, Jay Gibilisco, Kevin Green, Mark Harden, Terry Rodger: wind instruments; Ty Cameron, Walter Nelson: guitars; Tito Burges: drums; Skip Redd: director.

Ministering like this isn't as easy as it looks, but under the anointing, these talented singers boldly deliver their message in song.

"Boy, when is this day going to be over?" Skip Redd (right) puts many long hours into the group.

... And New Songs.

Southeastern's touring groups were kept busy this year, ministering to various walks of life in the many churches of the southeastern states. The members of these groups would sacrifice many of their weekends and their Thanksgiving break, as well as several hours during the week put into practice for their music ministry; however, they always felt repaid when they saw God move in a mighty way in the services.

New Song was really NEW Song in that the group consisted of all new members. Never-the-less, they still maintained their excellent caliber of musicianship. New Song, while their director, Rev. Alan Armstrong, was away for doctoral studies, was under the very capable direction of Dr. Danny Tindall, a new addition to the Southeastern faculty. New Song ministered to people of various ages with a variety of styles of music ranging from Contemporary Christian to Southern Gospel. The members had a zeal for the Lord and were excited about seeing God at work through the music.

Praise was a new addition to Southeastern's groups. Under the direction of Rev. Skip Redd, another new faculty member, they consisted of singers and a live band. Praise presented a laid-back contemporary style that was enjoyed by their vast audiences. Praise feverently ministered for the cause of Christ, believing that God would anoint them and touch lives for His glory.

One of the highlights of the year was both groups performing "We Will Stand" in chapel, exemplifying their unified desire to minister for God. Both of the groups under the anointing of God presented excellent ministry, and with their own unique vision, they succeeded in touching hearts and lives. Though the demands of the groups were great, the members of New Song and Praise depended on the Lord for their strength, and never failed to minister in song for the Lord.

Practice makes perfect, or so Billy Ballew (a freshman) and Brooks McElhenny (a sophomore) think.

Miracle ministered on many occasions in chapel

Building On A Dream Through Miracles

Miracle, a six-member vocal ensemble, continued to build on the dream of excellence. Miracle is a student directed group that would sacrifice their weekends and part of their summers to minister for God. Miracle presented a mellow contemporary Christian style of music that touched the hearts of old and young people with the Gospel of Christ. Miracle was open to the Lord and saw God work in people's lives. These young musicians continually made the dream of ministry become a reality.

We believe in tomorrow

'Living like there's no tomorrow' is a phrase that characterizes our time. Shaped by fear of the future, many are guided by an inner determination to grasp every experience, every reward now, whatever the cost.

Graduates, we believe in the future. Not a future to be anxious about, or hoard for. Rather we believe in a future held secure in God's hand. A future both here and hereafter that will challenge us and use us. A future in which personal sacrifice and selflessness are virtues.

The sun is not setting on mankind nor on God's plans for us. Nor on His plans for you. Go. Do God's work today, and tomorrow, and tomorrow.

Congratulations, graduates!
